THE UNOFFICIAL OFFICIAL CRUISE<sub>SORT OF</sub>

Although there is not an official Labor Day weekend cruise to Mystic Seaport this year four DIYC boats are going and they would love to see more boats join them. Currently Wolverine, Rumor, Wing It and Augenblick are all making the trip. Robin and Matt Konrad are also onboard Wolverine. A number of other members have expressed interest.

Mystic Seaport or Mystic Seaport: The Museum of America and the Sea in Mystic, Connecticut is the largest maritime museum in the United States. It is notable for its collection of sailing ships and boats and for the re-creation of the crafts and fabric of an entire 19th-century seafaring village. Wikipedia

The boats stay in the Seaport. Most plan to arrive mid-afternoon on Saturday. A happy hour is on Saturday around 5:00 pm and then a plan to go out for dinner in town. A second happy hour will most likely take place on Sunday, and some will go to dinner in town again. Boat locations within the marina are not set yet so location of happy hour is not set yet. For anyone wishing to drive to Mystic Seaport and meet up with the group call Kathy Nauber and she can arrange for a pass so you can enter the marina. Since the event was planned late there is not a huge set plan in place but Mystic is the Number One tourist destination in CT and a lot of fun. As are the folks who are currently listed above.

Kathy can be reached at 860-301-3432, if you plan on bringing your boat let her know. If you wish to drive up and stop in to meet group also let her know.

If traveling by boat and wish to reserve a spot the Dock Master is Greg Zabel 860-572-5391.
